

Humcrush & Sidsel Endresen

New Album (2011) Rune Grammofon

Improvised pling-plong, sometimes groovy, sometimes abstract and minimalistic, always strikingly beautiful: Humcrush with Sidsel Endresen

Humcrush; sneaky and engaging music that sound utterly of the moment, using all the gestures and timbres of contemporary electronica while making something that's live and fresh. The result is an exhilarating rollercoaster through the possibilities of electro-acoustic sound.

Rapid-fire bursts of breakbeat percussion beat out on acoustic and electronic instruments, combined with fragile plinks and washes of texture.

Sidsel Endresen's experimental work moves between mystical silence and restless action.

She is the musical dream partner of Ståle Storløkken, keyboarder with the Norwegian mega quartet Supersilent, and Thomas Strønen, co-founder of and drummer with the Norwegian-British band Food. As the duo Humcrush Strønen and Storløkken interact on a fascinatingly deep level and their music spans the gulf between analogue and digital sounds.
